Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The settlement is fair if anything it is unfair to Microsoft. I think it is a darn shame when a young boy can make the American dream come true and the vulchers of other companies(competitors)can use our legal system to try to eleminate the competition. As a matter of fact the legal system should penalize the competitors and the lawyers that are bringing the suit against Microsoft however I realize that Judges are lawyers so we know that the fair thing will never be done. The only way it will ever be fair is to get the money grubbing lawyers out of it and let a non-lawyer good American citizen make the ruling.
